JOB ARE NEEDED FOR MEN OUT OF WORK

"On account of the large number of men who have been thrown out of work during the past month, the employment situation in Honolulu is becoming very serious. I have heard of several men who have practically reached starvation. These men are able and willing to work, but they can find no employment, they say."

The foregoing statement was made this morning by A. E. Larimer, secretary of the men's department of the Young Men's Christian Association, who has assumed charge of the enlarged employment system recently perfected at the association. A large number of men are sent to Larimer each week by persons who have been asked to aid them in securing work, and he thus has come into contact with the actual conditions surrounding the situation.

"Such a condition as this makes it desirable that prominent local employers should get together and devise ways and means for relieving the situation," continued Larimer. "There must either be some means of giving these men a chance to make a living, or else they must be given an opportunity to leave the city. Otherwise, they will necessarily become a menace to the community."

The Young Men's Christian Association, with a view to taking steps toward solving this employment problem, has organized a committee of citizens who are interested in employment work. R. J. Pratt, of the Honolulu Iron Works, has been named chairman, and working with him are E. O. White, J. M. Young, N. E. Gedge, and Alexander Pratt. This committee will hold its first meeting tomorrow at noon to discuss the situation, and present plans for helping to secure some kind of work for the unemployed who are willing to labor. The association is also interested in the plans which are now being worked out by the associated charities for central employment registration. By this system, the local agencies doing employment work will be linked together under a central, non-partisan organization. The agencies which secure employment, for persons will be requested to submit a report to the central organization on all employment cases handled. In this way the organization, acting in cooperation with the Y. M. C. A. committee, believes that much can be done toward relieving the present situation.

RAINBOW AT THE CHRISTENING.

[By Latest Mail.]
YOSEMITE, Cal.—Under the curling white crest of the world from Yosemite falls of Yosemite National park, where the waters drop sheer over a granite cliff 300 feet, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Foster Curry, was christened Katherine Cherry Curry by the Rev. George Maxwell, of the Episcopal church of Sausalito, Cal. at sunset.

As the clergyman sprayed water from dripping mosses at the conclusion of the rite the setting sun shining through the falls formed a rainbow arch above the heads of the party.

A monkey, one of the actors in "All Aboard" at Lew Field's theater in New York, bit one of the chorus girls and leaping into the orchestra tore the trimming off a woman's hat.

MOTHER SO POORLY

Could Hardly Care for Children—Finds Health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Dovina Center, N.Y.—"For six years I have not had as good health as I have now. I was very young when my first baby was born and my health was very bad after that. I was not regular and I had pains in my back and was so poorly that I could hardly take care of my two children. I doctored with several doctors but got no better. They told me there was no help without an operation. I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has helped me wonderfully. I do most of my own work now and take care of my children. I recommend your remedies to all suffering women."

Mrs. WILLARD A. GRAHAM, Care of ELSWORTH TUTTLE, Bovina Center, N.Y.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and today holds the record of being the most successful remedy we know for woman's ills. If you need such a medicine why don't you try it?

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

SANCHEZ WILL REMAIN HERE UNTIL NINTH

L. M. Straus represents Sanchez, appeared for the prisoner this morning and consented that a continuance be made until September 9, at 10 o'clock, and that Sanchez be remanded to the custody of the city and county jailer until that time.

In consenting that postponement be made in the case, Attorney Humphreys said:

"It appears on the very face of it that the request of the prosecution is unusual; but I have no objections to having the court make an order in accordance with the request of the prosecution with the understanding that proceedings remain in statu quo until that time."

In speaking of the case before court was called, Mr. Humphreys expressed his confidence that he would win in his attempt to give Sanchez freedom. By treaty arrangement, he pointed out, all cases of this kind in China are tried before the consular court of the country of which the prisoner is a subject. In this case, he says, if Sanchez is returned, he will be tried before a Portuguese consular court, as he claims Portuguese citizenship. Inasmuch as there is no treaty between Portugal and the United States, Mr. Humphreys sees where advantage may be taken of this circumstance in denying the right of the United States to return a prisoner to a Portuguese court. The law of comity between nations he does not believe sufficient in itself to warrant the surrender of a prisoner.

While the attorneys for the prosecution have not been called upon to reply to this argument, it was said this morning that Sanchez may jump from the frying pan into the fire. The immigration officials have raised a question about his right to land here. It is reported, and if his habeas corpus proceeding are successful, it may be that he will be taken into custody by the immigration department and deported as an undesirable citizen, or one without proper entrance papers. At all events it is certain now that Chief of Detectives McDuffie will not sail today for his trip with the prisoner to China. And, by the signs that are, it may be some time before he does set forth, if ever.

WILSON HOME: WILL NOT BE PROPHET

ed Mr. Wilson.
"I do not care to go on record as venturing a prediction as to who will finally land the office," declared the national committeeman and well known leader of local democracy. "I left the seat of national government on the eleventh of August and for that reason have not been in as close touch as I would have been had I remained in the east."

Asked regarding the possibility of President Wilson withdrawing the name of Pinkham for that of E. M. Watson or another of the candidates who some months ago graced the field, Mr. Wilson retained a marked and discrete silence.

"I cannot say what the outcome will be. If Watson is to again be brought up for consideration at the hands of the president, it is news to me," concluded the politician as he turned from the steamer and was taken in tow by a little delegation of politicians and friends and whisked away for a conference.

Mr. Wilson combined politics and business on his extended tour. He made extended purchases of material which later may enter into future valuable contracts which he and his associates hold in the territory.

DENTISTRY VERY OLD PROFESSION

[By Latest Mail]

NEW YORK.—Human skulls containing teeth filled with gold, and said to be so old that they ante-date the earliest era of history of which there is any written record were brought to this city yesterday by Professor Marshall H. Saville, the archaeologist of Columbia University.

Professor Saville dug up the interesting relics when making excavations in Ecuador a few miles from the village of Esmeraldas. Professor Saville arrived in this city yesterday on board the Carl Schurz, of the Hamburg-American line.

The Professor, with a party of scientists sent by Columbia University, reached South America last March, and practically ever since has been engaged in field work in territories in four different parts of Ecuador. In addition to the gold filled teeth he brought to this city yesterday an extensive collection of pottery, weapons, and the work of ancient gold and silver smiths.

From his discoveries, Professor Saville believes that dentistry, as it is in all its essentials to the prehistoric inhabitants of Ecuador, as many of the teeth in his possession appear in positions in the human jaw where they would not be visible in life, and must have been filled with gold to ease pain.

Other of the teeth in the collection are front teeth inlaid with various ornamental devices. As many of the devices are alike, or vary only slightly from others, Professor Saville is of the opinion that the different designs were marks of social or official rank.

WILD'S PARQUET INLAIN LINOLEUM

Throughout the House

THE absolute cleanliness of this flooring, its remarkable wearing qualities, the dignity and richness of the hard wood patterns, and its many other desirable features recommend it for general use throughout the house.
The finest fancy wood effects are reproduced in warm, contrasting tones of mahogany, walnut, oak and maple. The patterns are inlaid much the same as in wood parquetry, the colors going right through from top to bottom. They remain intact and retain their original beauty for years.

Wild's Parquet Inlaid Linoleum is noiseless, easy on the feet, less expensive than hard wood, and never needs refinishing. It is not easily stained, being impervious to water and grease; has no joints to collect dirt; and is perfectly sanitary. Not only is it easily kept fresh and clean with soap and water, but it actually kills germs. Prof. Ludwig Bitter of the Kiel Hygienic Institute, in his experiments on "The Destruction of Bacteria by Building Materials," found that linoleum, owing to the permanent presence of linseed oil, has a lasting bactericidal property.

This beautiful and durable flooring is equally desirable for use in offices and public buildings.

Come in and let us show you our new stock of Wild's Linoleums, comprising plain, printed, granite, tile and parquetry inlaid.

Prices: 75 cts. to $1.85 a sq. yd.
